|  | <h2>NOT CONFORMED TO THIS WORLD</h2> ROMANS 12:1-2 |
| | Two weeks ago we discovered that God’s kingdom was inaugurated at the incarnation of Jesus but will be consummated at His second coming. So what constitutes His kingdom during this intermediary period when the kingdom is already here but has not yet? Scripture clearly identifies the church as the present manifestation of the kingdom in this world. But what is the church, and what is its relationship to the world.? |

WHAT IS THE CHURCH?

1. The _____ is the present manifestation of the _____ (Matthew 16:18-19; Revelation 1:6, 9).

2. The word church is a translation of the Greek word _____, which literally means “the _____ ones” and refers to a “_____” or “_____.” (Acts 7:38; 19:32, 39, 41)

FROM WHAT IS THE CHURCH CALLED OUT?

1. The church is instructed not to be _____ to the world (Romans 12:2).

2. The church is expected to appear “_____” to the world (1 Peter 4:1-4).

3. The church is expected to “keep [itself] _____ from the world” (James 1:27).
