

GO INTO ALL THE WORLD
JOHN 17:14-18

Before Jesus returned to heaven, He gave an assignment to His followers. We often refer to it as the Great Commission. The first word in Matthew’s account of the Great Commission is a single imperative, “Go” (28:19). Mark provided a little more information when he wrote, “Go into all the world” (16:15). In Jesus’ last words, He instructed His disciples to infiltrate the world but to what end? We’ve already noted in previous lessons that Jesus expects us to distinguish ourselves from the world, so why does He instruct us to “go into all the world”?

Based on Jesus’ prayer in John 17:14-18, it is apparent that He expects us to _____ not _____ ourselves from the world, and based on Jesus’ instruction in Mark 16:15, the mission has always been to _____ the kingdom into the world not to _____ it from the world. As a result, Jesus’ command to “go” established an expectation of purposeful _____.

WHAT ARE WE EXPECTED TO “GO INTO ALL THE WORLD” AND DO?

1. We are expected to go and _____ the gospel (Matthew 28:19-20; Mark 16:15).

2. We are expected to go and _____ for Christ (Matthew 5:16; Philippians 2:14-15).
 - The expectation of shining is a call for us to _____ Christ to the world (John 8:12; Matthew 5:14; 2 Corinthians 5:20).

 - We must be faithful lights because failure to walk in the light causes us to _____ God (Ephesians 5:8; 1 John 1:5-6)

3. We are expected to go and _____ others (Luke 10:37; Matthew 20:28; John 13:15).
 - The first century church frequently engaged in _____ activities (Acts 3:1-10; 5:16; 6:1-6; 9:32-35, 36-42; 11:27-30).

 - As a result, the first century church realized that service was _____ to the lost (Acts 2:47-6:7).
