

WHAT DOES FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP ENTAIL?

1. Financial stewardship entails giving God the _____.
 - Giving one’s first fruits refers to giving God _____ priority (Deuteronomy 26:1-10; Matthew 6:33; Proverbs 3:9).
 - When it comes to giving, God does not expect us to give above our _____ (2 Corinthians 8:11), but He does expect us to give _____ and _____ (2 Corinthians 9:6-9).
 - Failure to be a good steward is considered a form of _____ God (Malachi 3:8-9).

2. Financial stewardship means not _____ God’s funds.
 - The primary means through which we misappropriate God’s funds is _____ (Romans 13:8).
 - We should avoid debt because it robs us of a _____ mentality (Hebrews 11:13; 1 Peter 2:11), prevents us from _____ in kingdom opportunities (Matthew 6:19-20), and contradicts the life of _____ that God prepared for His children (Proverbs 22:7).
 - Failure to be a good steward is considered a form of _____ (Matthew 25:26-30).

WHAT PREVENTS US FROM BEING WISE FINANCIAL STEWARDS?

Minimal giving and an addiction to debt are typically symptoms of a _____ disease (Matthew 6:21).

1. The Disease of _____:

This mentality is an affront to God because He has not only promised to meet our _____ (Matthew 6:25-32) but to do so in _____ (Proverbs 3:10; Malachi 3:10).

2. The Disease of _____:

Developing _____ is the antidote to a life that is consumed with worshipping money (1 Timothy 6:7-10; Philippians 4:11-13).
