

	<h2 style="margin: 0;">IDENTITY CRISIS</h2> ROMANS 6:3-11
	Who am I? It's an important question because it's a question about identity. In fact, psychologists have theorized that we all experience an identity crisis during our adolescent years that determines our understanding of who we are for the rest of our lives. But the identity we adopt during our adolescent years is not nearly as important as the identity we adopt during our rebirth into Christ. God has a specific list of identities He intends for His people to adopt, and before we examine these we need to understand why they matter.

WHAT IS THE SOURCE OF OUR IDENTITY?

1. Either our identity is based on how the _____ us (John 15:19; 1 John 3:1; James 4:4)

2. Or our identity is based on what the _____ of us (Luke 9:23; 2 Corinthians 5:17; Galatians 2:20; 1 Peter 2:9-12).

WHY DOES OUR IDENTITY MATTER?

1. Our identity matters because it reflects our _____ (Matthew 15:18-20; Daniel 1:1-8; Proverbs 4:23; Mark 12:30).

2. Our identity matters because it can be _____ (Ephesians 6:11; Numbers 13:31-33; Exodus 6:7-8).
